EDWIN J. WALBOURN,
President

No printed word or spoken plea
Can teach young hearts what men should be;
Not all the books on all the shelves
But what the teachers are themselves.
For education is making men!
So is it now, so was it when
Mark Hopkins sat on one end of a log
And James Garfield sat on the other.

Board of Regents: Richard Maddox, E. F. Adams, Richard Chase, Garland P. Ferrell, Jr., chairman; Dr. G. E. Kassebaum, James B. McKay, Jr., Edwin J. Walbourn, president.

Board Of Regents

The Board of Regents has had a busy year in preparing plans for the new campus. Mr. Adams succeeded Mr. Chester Davis, whose illness and death resulted in the first change in the board's original personnel. Official ground breaking and actual building of the new campus and complex began in February

Juco Voices

The Juco Voices, a choral group organized last year and continued this year with new personnel, has proved a very popular group, having been invited to perform at many club programs. The first semester group journeyed through Kansas City into Iowa over the weekend of November 4 for a series of entertainments and represented the El Dorado People-to-People chapter at the Mineral Water Bowl Football Classic in Excelsior Springs, Missouri, the weekend following Thanksgiving.

The second semester group has continued to provide entertainment for many occasions, including a special program at Tabor College at Hillsboro. It has constantly added to its repertoire of literary selections and plans to make a tour of performances following the close of the school year.

Student Kansas State Teachers Association

Members of the SKSTA, being interested in various areas of the teaching field, seek to keep up to date on the trends and policies in education. Officers attended an officers' workshop in Topeka in October and the spring state convention in April. The major event of the first semester was the annual Christmas party for students in the El Dorado school for retarded students, pictures of which appear below.

Leslie Duffel

was selected by members of the football team to reign over the homecoming game played with the Wichita State University freshmen on October 16.

Leslie, a native of Longview, Texas, was graduated from Longview High School last spring. She came to El Dorado with her family upon her father's transfer.

Always a lover of sports, Leslie participated in a bowling club and in pep club activities in high school. At Butler County Junior College she enthusiastically helped to support the football team from the pep club section, and is pursuing a liberal arts course of study.

Basketball Queen

was nominated by members of the basketball team and elected by the student body to reign over the homecoming game played with Garden City on January 29.

Glenda, a product of El Dorado schools, has been a busy student at the junior college. She has been a member of the Juco Voices for three semesters, making the tour with the group last spring. She served as a student director of the school play, "The Mouse Trap," and was initiated into Delta Psi Omega, honorary junior college drama society. She was selected chairman to the newly-organized college chapter of People-to-People and has served as president of the Methodist Student Movement at the Methodist Church. An ardent sports enthusiast, Glenda has also been one of the loyal cheerleaders for both the football and basketball seasons.

Her chosen career lies in the field of speech and dramatics.

"Whatever you do, you need courage. Whatever course you decide upon, there is always someone to tell you, you are wrong. There are always difficulties arising which tempt you to believe that your critics are right. To map out a course of action and follow it to an end, requires some of the same courage which a soldier needs. Peace has its victories, but it takes brave men to win them." -Emerson

One of the purposes of a junior college is to provide opportunity for adults in the community to enroll in special classes for personal gain or professional advancement. We are happy to present these people as special students in our school.

held in December in the Hotel El Dorado ballroom, presented the setting for revealing the Butler County Junior College favorites, R. J. Hess and Donna Komer, and honoring their runners-up.

Music at the ball was provided by junior college students and faculty members who formed a combo and gave a variety of dance music, some of which was accompanied by faculty vocalists.

SPRING ACTIVITIES

Track

For the second year, after a lapse of several years, Butler County Junior College had an active track squad which participated in several meets and played host to an invitational meet on April 24.

Gary Yohe won honors by placing first in shot-put and fifth in javelin throw at the state meet and by ranking fifth in shop-put in the national junior college meet in Garden City. Roland Young placed fifth in broad jump in the state meet.

Oil Day

The fiftieth anniversary of the discovery of oil in Butler County was observed on March 26 with what was termed one of the most impressive parades in the history of the county.

The El Dorado Chamber of Commerce gave the students at the college the privilege of selecting the Oil Queen who reigned over the festivities of the day.

Loretta Huber, freshman, was selected queen and rode on the queen's float in the parade. She was also guest of honor at the banquet in the evening.

The attendants were Margie Waltman, El Dorado; Jodi Short, Augusta; Rita Webster, Rose Hill; and Adale Wammck, Rosalia.

The Annual Spring Banquet

for the first time in the history of the school, was held outside of El Dorado. The banquet room at Lehr's Restaurant in Augusta provided the setting for dining. Roland Young presided at the festivities. The featured speaker was Garland P. Ferrell, Jr., chairman of the Board of Regents. The Juco Voices were appreciatively received by the banquet group. Following the dinner the group returned to the 4-H Building in El Dorado for an evening of dancing.

Order Of The Purple

Graduating sophomores who have maintained a 3.25 grade point average on a 4.00 basis, and who have been enrolled at Butler County Junior College for one full year carrying at least twelve hours per semester are named to the school's honor society, the Order of the Purple early in April.

Members of the faculty honored these students with a dinner on May 12. The school's colors, gold and purple, were featured in the table flowers. Mr. Nixon presided at the dinner and presented mementos of the occasion to the honored guests.

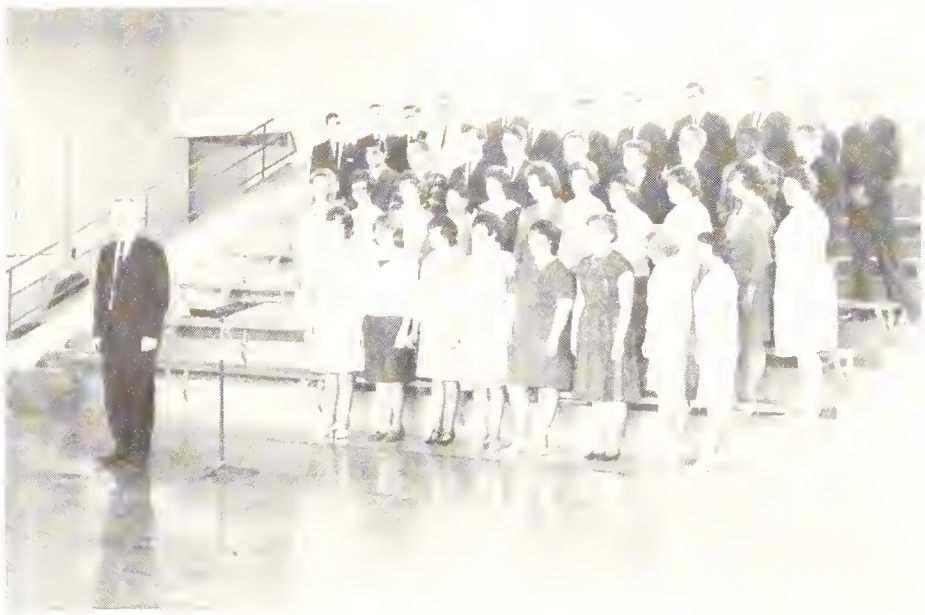

A total of 221 students have been named to the Order of the Purple.

Music Groups

during the spring semester were kept busy with a number of performances. The most ambitious undertaking was the presentation of "The Holy City" by Alfred R. Gaul. Although sponsored by the music department, the oratorio became a significant success with the addition of musicians from all parts of Butler County. Over one hundred persons joined in the Palm Sunday production on April 11.

The annual spring tour on May 4 and 6 included concerts at Augusta, Rosalia, Douglass, Rose Hill, and Circle High Schools.
